

Server Side Redirection

Server side redirection is controlled on the server. This is controlled by either the company providing the redirection or your server side scripts like ASP or PHP. You can check with the hosting company whether redirection service is available; if it is then it will be a matter of making configuration changes on your admin panel. This will also help you in case you move your data from vendor B to vendor C.

From:

<http://en.seowiki.info/> - SEO Wiki

Permanent link:

http://en.seowiki.info/glossary/s/server_side_redirection

Last update: 2010/05/18 14:49

